

Global Governance: Newfound setup. Same ethical principles.

Ensuring ethical business practices and responsible procurement standards.

UNGC Principle 1 - businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights.

UNGC Principle 2 - make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

UNGC Principle 4 - the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour.

UNGC Principle 5 - the effective abolition of child labour.

UNGC Principle 10 - businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Material Topic	UN SDGs	Commitment and Initiatives
Ethical business conduct	UN SDG 16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS	At Innomotics, we are committed to promoting ethical business conduct through our Business Conduct Guidelines , ensuring that our employees are trained to uphold the highest standards of honesty, integrity, and accountability. We actively prevent anti-corruption and anti-competitive practices, and we ensure compliance with laws and regulations. Our commitment extends to respecting the dignity, privacy, and inherent rights of individuals, fostering a respectful and inclusive environment. We engage only with reputable, law-abiding partners, aligning with those who share our values of transparency and ethical conduct.
Ethical procurement	UN SDG 17 PARTNERSHIP FOR THE GOALS	We are committed to ethical procurement practices by partnering with suppliers who uphold human rights and labor conditions, including fair wages, safe working environments, and the elimination of child and forced labor. Our commitment extends to fair operating practices, environmental protection, climate action, natural resources conservation, and responsible minerals sourcing. To ensure compliance, we conduct external sustainability audits on our suppliers, monitoring adherence to these principles, all of which are embedded in our Code of Conduct (CoC) for Suppliers and Third-Party Intermediaries .
