These Terms and Conditions for purchase of Goods and/or Services by Innomotics LLC (“Innomotics”) in the USA (“Terms”) and all documents attached hereto or referenced herein (“Exhibits”), including the Purchase Order form, amendments or change orders if any, shall constitute the contract for the Goods/Services purchased by Customer (collectively “Purchase Order”). “Customer” means the Innomotics entity identified in the Purchase Order. “Supplier” means the party identified in the Purchase Order. Supplier and Customer are authorized to do business or maintain a registered agent in the USA. Customer and Supplier are, individually, referred to as a “Party” and, collectively as the “Parties”. “Affiliate” means, with respect to a Party, any other party who directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with such Party; provided, however, such party shall be deemed to be an Affiliate only as long as such control exists. For purposes of this definition, “control” (of a corporation, company or other entity) shall mean to have, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a corporation, company or other entity, whether (i) through the ownership of voting securities providing for the right to elect or appoint, directly or indirectly, the majority of the board of directors, or a similar managing authority, (ii) by contract or (iii) otherwise. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for Innomotics, “Affiliate” shall also include any Carved-out unit. “Carved-out Unit” shall mean any company, in which Innomotics or an Affiliate of Innomotics directly or indirectly holds a minority interest of at least 10 (ten) percent and (i) which formerly was an Affiliate of Innomotics, or (ii) which operates a business which was formerly operated by Innomotics or an Affiliate of Innomotics and was transferred to such company, or (iii) which is an Affiliate of a company as specified in (i) or (ii) above, if and as long as that Innomotics has not informed the Supplier that such company shall not be deemed a Carved-out Unit for the purpose of this Purchase Order. “Representatives” mean a Party’s and its respective Affiliates’ directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives and/or subcontractors. “Goods” mean products, materials, raw materials, supplies, equipment, information, Work Product, data, drawings, designs, specifications, reports and/or off-the-shelf software furnished by Supplier hereunder. “Services” mean the tasks/deliverables to be provided/performed by Supplier as set forth in the Purchase Order. The Purchase Order is effective and is expressly conditional upon Supplier’s assent to all terms and conditions in the Purchase Order that are different from or additional to those stated in Supplier’s quotation, proposal, or other offering documents. Customer hereby gives notice of objection to any different or additional terms offered by Supplier in any response to this Purchase Order. Shipment of any Goods or the performance of any Services by Supplier shall be deemed to constitute Supplier’s assent to this provision.

1. COMMUNICATIONS AND CHANGE ORDERS

(A) All written communications shall (i) be directed to the addresses set forth in the Purchase Order, (ii) refer to the Purchase Order number and (iii) be delivered in accordance with this Purchase Order.

(B) If Customer requires modifications to the Goods/Services, the Parties shall negotiate an equitable adjustment in the form of a change order or amendment. Supplier shall not make any changes without Customer’s prior written consent.

2. PRICING, TERMS OF PAYMENT, TAXES AND DUTIES

(A) The purchase price set forth in the Purchase Order shall be in US Dollars, shall be firm and shall include Supplier’s overhead, insurance, packaging, storage and shipping, wages and other amounts owed to Supplier’s Representatives, including all administrative and travel expenses, taxes, customs, tariffs and all other costs, and expenses (including transfer pricing) applicable to the Goods/Services. The purchase prices for Goods (both tangible and intangible) and Services shall be separately stated.

(B) Customer shall not be responsible for the payment of any taxes, customs, tariffs, fees or duties other than those required to be paid by Customer under Applicable Law (defined below) and which are clearly itemized on Supplier’s invoice(s). Customer shall provide tax exemption certificates or other applicable tax documents

(C) Unless otherwise set forth in the Purchase Order, invoices are due and payable net one hundred and twenty (120) days after receipt of the Goods (including all documents required in the Purchase Order), performance of the Services, and a receipt of a correct undisputed invoice by Customer. Payment(s) shall be by electronic banking method identified in the Purchase Order.

3. TITLE, RISK OF LOSS, DELIVERY

(A) Title to Goods, and title or license to Services, shall pass to Customer at the earlier of (i) payment by Customer or (ii) receipt of the Goods/Services by Customer per the delivery terms in the Purchase Order. In the event of advance or progress payments, Supplier shall (a) reasonably identify or otherwise mark the Goods/Services as Customer's property; (b) sign and deliver such documents for Customer to confirm that title or license has passed to Customer; and (c) if requested by Customer, provide an advance payment bond acceptable to Customer. Goods/Services shall be delivered free and clear of all liens or claims.

(B) For Goods purchases, the Purchase Order shall state the (i) mode, manner, and timing of delivery to Customer, its end user(s) or designee(s) and (ii) address of final destination. If shipping terms are not specified on the Purchase Order, Goods shall be delivered FCA (Supplier's premises identified in the Purchase Order). For any shipping term that does not specify the origin, origin shall refer to the Supplier's premises identified in the Purchase Order. Unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order for U.S. Suppliers, in no event shall Customer be responsible for the payment of any taxes, customs, tariffs, fees, or duties incurred due to Supplier's vendors being located outside of the United States. Regardless of the shipping terms used, risk of loss to the Goods shall remain with Supplier until Goods are in the possession, custody and control of Customer. Delivery of Goods shall be governed by Incoterms® 2020.

(C) Shipments sent C.O.D. without Customer's written consent will not be accepted and will be at Supplier's risk. Supplier is instructed to ship only the quantities specified in the Purchase Order. Any deviation caused by conditions of loading, shipping, packing, or allowances in manufacturing processes may be accepted by Customer only pursuant to a duly executed amendment or change order as set forth in Section 1(B). Customer reserves the right to return, without liability, any over-shipment at Supplier's expense.

(D) Supplier shall comply with Customer's delivery dates at its sole cost unless the Parties otherwise agree in writing. If a delay originates with Supplier or its Representatives, Supplier shall be solely responsible for expedited delivery and other charges to meet delivery dates. Goods shipped in advance of Customer's delivery dates may, at Customer's option, be returned to Supplier at Supplier's expense. Customer reserves the right to delay shipment of the Goods for up to thirty (30) days at no additional cost.

4. INSPECTION AND QUALITY CONTROL

Customer, its Representatives and/or end user(s) may inspect, test, reject or accept Goods/Services during manufacture or performance. If inspections/tests are made on Supplier's premises, Supplier, without additional charge, shall provide reasonable facilities and assistance for the safety and convenience of Customer's inspectors. Customer's inspections/tests will not unduly interfere with Supplier's business. Supplier shall maintain quality control and inspection systems as mutually agreed upon by the Parties and provide Customer with quality assurance documentation, manuals or certifications. Notwithstanding prior inspection or testing, payment, or passage of title, all Goods/Services shall be subject to final inspection and written acceptance at final destination, with such rights of inspection/rejection being in addition to any other rights or remedies of Customer under this Purchase Order or Applicable Law. If Customer rejects all or part of the Goods, Customer may return Goods to Supplier, at Supplier's sole risk and expense, for rework or replacement, and Supplier shall ship conforming Goods within ten (10) days of Supplier's receipt of the rejected Goods. If Customer determines, in its sole discretion, that Supplier is unable to rework or replace Goods within the time required

(E) Customer's approval of Supplier's samples, prototypes or first articles shall not be construed as a waiver of any express or implied warranty.

(F) In addition to any other obligations set forth in this Article 5, Supplier shall pass through all assignable third-party manufacturers' warranties applicable to Goods/Services furnished by Supplier. In the event a third-party warranty is not assignable, Supplier shall enforce its warranty against a third party at Supplier's expense upon Customer's reasonable request. Supplier shall immediately notify Customer in writing of product recalls and/or product safety notices that concern the Goods/Services.

(G) Customer shall have the right to assign all Supplier warranties under this Purchase Order to third parties including Customer's customers/end users who shall have all rights to enforce such warranty.

6. CUSTOMER FURNISHED PROPERTY

The term "Customer Furnished Property" shall mean all tools, patterns, equipment, materials or other property which is either supplied by or on behalf of Customer or its Representatives to Supplier to perform the Services or furnish the Goods, or purchased by Customer from Supplier which is to be "delivered in place" and stored at Supplier's facility. Supplier hereby, irrevocably, in perpetuity and without further consideration, assigns to Customer all right, title and interest that Supplier, its Affiliates and/or Representatives has or may have in the future anywhere in the world in all Work Product.

(C) Works made for Hire: Customer will be considered the “person for whom the work was prepared” for purposes of determining the authorship of any copyright in Work Product, and all copyrightable aspects of Work Product will constitute “works made for hire” as that term is defined under Section 101 of the U.S. Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, as amended (“Copyright Act”), or analogous provisions under other Applicable Laws, and will be owned exclusively by Customer upon creation. If (and to the extent) any of the foregoing (or any part or element thereof) is found as a matter of law not to be a “work made for hire” under Applicable Laws, Supplier hereby irrevocably, in perpetuity and without further consideration, assigns to Customer (its successors and assigns) all right, title and interest that Supplier has or may have in the future in and to all United States and foreign copyrights in Work Product and all copies thereof.

(D) Disclosure; Further Assurances: Supplier shall disclose and describe all Work Product to Customer and, promptly upon Customer’s request, provide any requested information or documentation related to Work Product. Supplier irrevocably designates and appoints Customer (or its designee) and its legal representatives and nominees, as Supplier’s agent and attorney-in-fact to prosecute and enforce any applications and intellectual property rights as to Work Product.

(E) Supplier shall promptly disclose, and hereby grants to Customer, a non-exclusive, freely transferable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, worldwide, license in and to, all Items owned or licensed by Supplier which are necessary for the use and enjoyment by Customer of Goods/Services and Work Product hereunder. If the settlement of a Claim may result in ongoing liability to or detrimentally impacts Customer, its Affiliates, Representatives or end users, then such settlement shall require the prior written consent of Customer. Customer may have its own counsel at Customer's cost at all related proceedings.

(C) In case either Party reasonably believes the Goods/Services, or any part thereof, may be the subject of an intellectual property Claim, Supplier shall at its own expense: (a) procure Customer, its Representatives and/or end user's right to continue using the Goods/Services; (b) replace with substantially equivalent non-infringing Goods/Services; or (c) modify the Goods/Services in compliance with Applicable Laws so it becomes non-infringing.

An individual who is a Supplier Representative will be immune from liability for the confidential disclosure of trade secrets (i) to a governmental agency to report a suspected violation of law or (ii) to a court, if the individual complies with the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C.
